

The City of Millbrae, California

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Rosacea is a widespread and chronic skin disorder that affects more than sixteen million Americans; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John Wolf, chairman of dermatology at Baylor College of Medicine said, "The earliest signs of Rosacea are often overlooked because people assume they are temporary and will go away. Unfortunately, without medical treatment the effects of Rosacea often persist and become increasingly severe"; and

WHEREAS, the National Rosacea Society designates April as Rosacea Awareness Month to promote awareness about this common disorder; and

WHEREAS, the goal of Rosacea Awareness Month is to educate the public about this disease to bring greater public acceptance and understanding of this disorder as well as to get more people who may have Rosacea seek medical help before it gets worse.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, the members of the Millbrae City Council, proclaim April 2019 as
